ernment.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 16.—President Taft of the United States today greeted President Diaz of Mexico. With the chief executives of the American Republics exchanged expressions of friendship and good will cannon boomed across the entire region. The modern business houses of El Paso and the old buildings of old Juarez across the river were gay with the flags of the two nations and crowds of Mexicans and Americans swarmed the streets, mingled, shook hands and repeated the expressions of friendship expressed by their Presidents. The business institutions of both cities are closed today and the people of the whole surrounding country are taking a holiday in honor of the occasion.

The program which began with the arrival yesterday of President Diaz and his escort will not close until an exchange of visits across the river occurs, the Presidents have each been entertained by each other and the banquet tonight in the custom house in Juarez is over.

President Diaz was dressed in a gorgeous uniform and surrounded by officials and cabinet members.

General Myer, commander of the department of Texas had with him Batteries A and C, from Fort Sam Houston, and two squadrons of the third cavalry with the entire ninth infantry. Artillery and cavalry were drawn up about the place where President Diaz alighted from his carriage to receive the greetings of General Bell. After being officially welcomed to the country President Diaz was welcomed to Texas by Governor Campbell and to El Paso by the mayor of the city.

The cavalry band struck up "La Paloma," the artillery guns boomed out the Presidential salute of 21 guns and the soldiers forming an escort of honor led the distinguished Mexican to the house where President Taft was awaiting him.

President Diaz's escort was drawn in the following order: Brig. General Myer and staff of squadron officials; the Presidential salutes; the Presidential escort for Diaz; one squadron of cavalry; field artillery; infantry, and drawn up about the Chamber of Commerce where Taft awaited Diaz.

SIZE OF FAMILY BISSENETTE'S TENDER SPOT Probation Officer Canfield Throws Light on Causes Leading Up to Demery Killing

WIFE NOT TOLD OF MURDER

A statement made this morning by Probation Officer Canfield may throw some light on the murder of Rome F. Demery, the East Side newsdealer and tobaccoist, by Napoleon Bissonnette, 1925 Seaview avenue, Tuesday evening when the attacker shot and killed Demery, almost immediately, in the Bissonnette home. It was in regard to feelings of Bissonnette that he had so large a family.

It will be remembered that in his statement Bissonnette claims Demery said, "I have two sons, a daughter, and referring to Bissonnette's wife, Demery's sister. It was this statement the probation officer thought that worked Bissonnette up to the point where he shot Demery. Several times the probation officer said he had been told that Bissonnette would fly into a passion at once if any mention was made of his family, and the large number of children he was bringing into the world in comparison with his means of supporting them.

This was a tender spot and one which he was very sensitive. It was said on good authority this morning that after the birth of his last child, Wednesday, one of the children in the family was born. He now has 10 living. Four are dead.

Bissonnette still preserves the air of indifference which he has borne since the tragedy and seems to feel that he was perfectly justified in what he did. One who has talked with him said this morning that he did not seem to realize the enormity of the crime. He knew that he had done a great wrong but could not seem to appreciate the reason for making so much trouble over it.

Several who know Bissonnette say that he is not mentally whole. They mentioned cases where he has done queer things. He was usually a quiet and peaceable man in the Singer Sewing Machine Co.'s factory where he had worked for several years, but he was also easily aroused to a height of passion if things went wrong.

Mrs. Bissonnette and the three days' hospital, and the mother is very comfortable. Fearing that the result would prove very injurious to her, she has yet told her of the killing.

To see the little children of the man now in the county jail charged with the murder in the first degree would move one to tears. The house is all torn up in preparation of their moving from the home which would always be to them one of sorrow, to another home several blocks away. The little children feel that something is wrong, but do not realize the full truth. Pretty children they are, too, with bright eyes which sparkle with the trust and innocence of childhood. The children will be cared for by the relatives of the mother, until such a condition to be taken from the hospital.

The question in every mind at the present time is why was the wife not told of the killing?

SLOT MACHINES IN THE CELLAR

Police Commissioner Hill
Believes the Path of the Small Boy Will be Easier
Now.

"No, I have not seen Prosecuting Attorney Delaney about the legality of the penny-in-slot gum machines, but I will do so very soon and I guess if you go over on the East Side you will find many of them down in the cellar that were on the counter yesterday. The storekeepers don't want to take any chances. My personal opinion is that the machines are violating the law." These are the words of Attorney Geo. E. Hill of the board of police commissioners, who was appointed a committee to confer with Prosecuting Attorney Delaney regarding the legality of the machines which the police board think are a menace to the small boy in his walk along the straight and narrow path which leadeth to the presidency of the United States.

ACTRESS VICTIM IN SUIT CASE MURDER MYSTERY

AMELIA ST. JEAN

Two men, one a chauffeur and one a physician, have been arrested in connection with the now famous Tiverton (R. I.) suit case murder mystery. The arrests were made at Fall River, Mass., and the police fear that the dismembered body of the young woman found near Tiverton was that of Miss Amelia St. Jean, a pretty young French girl who lived at Woodsocket. The girl was last seen alive near her home on the day before the mutilated body was found. She formerly traveled with a theatrical company and was a young woman of some dramatic talent. She is believed to have been murdered and her body cut up and carried in an automobile to the lonely roadside spot where it was found.

AGED MOTHER ATTENDS

The funeral of Rome F. Demery, who was killed by Napoleon Bissonnette, was held this morning from his late residence, 276 Brooks street, at 8:30 o'clock and thence to St. Anthony's church on Colcord avenue where a solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Joseph Desaulniers. The edifice was thronged with relatives and friends, for the unfortunate man was well known and highly respected by all those who knew him. His relatives in attendance at the funeral wept constantly. The victim's mother, who is almost 80 years of age, and she feeble, attended the funeral, with others, Albertina Bissonnette, the oldest daughter of the slayer, who was the only witness to the shooting, and a shorter woman who was under for the past few days, having taken the life of her benefactor, whom she regarded almost as a father. Even a physician had to be called in to care for her. This morning, however, she was much better, and, with other relatives, attended the funeral. Delegations from Progressive Circle, Brotherhood of America, and Ladies Aid Society, both of which organizations the deceased was a popular member, attended the services. The pall bearers were from the Brotherhood of America. The interment was in St. Michael's cemetery, where Rev. Father Desaulniers read the committal services.

HEARING ON DEATH OF MRS. E. LEWIS

Inquest Into Death of Demery
Will Be Held
Monday

Death of Meyers Accidental

There was a hearing this morning before the coroner on the death of Etta, wife of William J. Lewis, who died suddenly at her home, 444 Berkshire avenue, on Oct. 7th, at the age of 19 years, leaving an 18 months old baby. Coroner Wilson when asked about the case said, "There's nothing to it." Mrs. Lewis on the afternoon of Oct. 8 was taken suddenly ill and Dr. J. H. D. Budaw was sent for. He prescribed. The next morning the doctor was suddenly called to a patient. Further that Mrs. Lewis had passed away. Heart trouble was given as the cause of death.

Coroner has rendered his finding as accidental in the drowning of Arthur H. Meyers, whose body was found Thursday morning floating in the local harbor. A medical Examiner, F. B. Downs, in his findings returned to the coroner, stated that the skull was fractured and that the right arm was broken. In his opinion they occurred after death as the lungs were well filled with water, probably showing that drowning was the real cause of death.

Coroner Clifford B. Wilson decided this morning to hold an inquest Monday morning at 10 o'clock on the killing of Rome F. Demery by Napoleon Bissonnette at the latter's home Tuesday evening. The witnesses to be called are Bissonnette, himself, Albertina, his daughter, who saw the shooting, and Medical Examiner F. B. Downs and Dr. G. H. Warner, who performed the autopsy yesterday morning.

Would Substitute Luminous Arc or Magnitude Lamps at Rate of 20 Cents Per Lamp Per Night, or $73 Per Year.

Chairman Day Favors Ac- cepting Proposition — No Concessions to Private Consumers — Proposal Made by A. B. Beers, Com- pany's Counsel

Seeking to avoid the inquest into its affairs which the city is making through a special committee of the Common Council, the United Illuminating Company has made an offer to the committee which is in the nature of a compromise.

In essence the company offers to replace the present arc lights with the so called luminous arc or magnitude lamps at the rate of 20 cents per lamp per night, which is $73 per lamp per year. The present cost is 21 cents per lamp.

Noting that in the proposition to the effect that it is expected that if the offer is accepted the investigation will be abandoned. It is understood, however, that the company has nothing less in mind than the abandonment of the inquiry.

No concessions are proposed to private consumers of current. The committee takes the ground that it has not power to consider the rights of private consumers under the resolution creating it.

The investigation grew out of the agitation by the Howard Dry Goods company in pursuit of its private rights to the city of Bridgeport and the United Illuminating Company.

The United Illuminating Company having installed on the New Haven and Bridgeport a large number of luminous arc or magnitude lamps, and believing that economy will result from their general use, hereby makes the following proposition:

That the present contract between the City of Bridgeport and the Company be amended by a new contract to take effect upon the execution of the same, which contract is to provide for the installation in the place of lamps now in use, three hundred and thirty luminous arc or magnitude lamps, using four amperes at not less than seventy-two volts at the arc, at the following price: For each lamp, one hundred and thirty dollars, plus the cost of installation, approximately the number now used by the City, at the rate of twenty cents per night per lamp for all night use, and one cent per lamp per night for day use. When the number of lights in use exceeds seven hundred, the price to be at the rate of nineteen cents per lamp per night, and when being seventy-one dollars and seven cents per year, the contract to continue in force until the expiration of the term of the present contract, either party to the other of its desire to terminate the same, provided that no notice shall be given by either party to the other, in writing, at least thirty days before the expiration of the contract. The details of the contract to be agreed upon between the representatives of the City and the Company.

The Luminous Arc or Magnitude Lamps above provided for are of the same type as those which have been lately experimentally used in the City of Bridgeport.

We have endeavored to make the above proposition as fair as possible to the City of Bridgeport, at a less price than that provided by the present contract, and to meet as far as possible the desires of the City.

THE UNITED ILLUMINATING COMPANY
By Alfred B. Beers,

Bridgeport, Conn., October 15th, 1909.

The proposition of the United Illuminating Company will be considered at a meeting of the investigation committee to be held next Tuesday evening, at which time action will be taken upon the proposition.

Attorney David S. Day, of the committee, said today that personally he favored the proposition of the company as it meant better light for less money, and a shorter term contract for the future. Mr. Day said that his opinion was only that of one of the committee, but from a careful study of the proposition he was of the opinion that the company is a good as it will give Bridgeport the cheapest electric street lighting in the state, where the electricity is produced by steam driven power, and there is an all night contract.

Hartford, he said had more lights than Bridgeport, and the cost of the per lamp cost cheaper, but in addition Hartford's electric light plant has a water power auxiliary which enables them to sell their electricity a little cheaper.

Norwalk, he said, was securing light cheaper because its plant was municipally owned, did not have to pay taxes and was operated on a moonlight schedule instead of on an all night basis. Therefore he did not think that a fair comparison could be made between this city and Norwalk.

There is nothing in the proposition concerning the use of incandescent lamps, and a shorter term contract to light municipal buildings any cheaper. Chairman Day said that the committee was not empowered to consider anything but the cost of street lighting with arc lights.

ELOPERS SEEK PARSON TO WED

An eloping couple from the center of the state came here this morning, secured a license to marry, and were married at 10 o'clock. The groom was Ernest H. Coe of Middletown, a farmer, aged 23, and the bride was Miss Mary L. Banks, aged 21, of Durham. They asked to be directed to the home of Rev. Gerald H. Beard, pastor of the Park Street Congregational church.

Arthur Commette, of 571 Howard avenue, caught his hand between an emery wheel and a board this morning while working the factory of the Locomotive Co., and received a cut which required two stitches to close at the emergency hospital, and Dr. Kierman closed the laceration.

SPAN BITTER OVER ACTION OF FRANCE

Rupture in Diplomatic Rela- tions of the Two Countries Seems Imminent

Public Buildings Draped in Memory of Prof. Ferrer, Who Was Executed

Paris, Oct. 16.—The rupture of diplomatic relations between France and Spain is believed to be imminent today as a result of the protest from Spain against the action of a number of French municipal councils in ordering all the flags on public buildings draped with crepe and half-masted in memory of Francisco Ferrer, the Spanish revolutionist who was executed in Barcelona, Wednesday.

In scores of French cities and towns the municipal authorities have shown sympathy with the anti-Spanish agitators and the Spanish government is to-day complaining bitterly that the French government, by refusing to furnish such dereliction of duty, has wittingly encouraged it and is in reality responsible for the demonstrations now occurring throughout France.

These demonstrations are growing in intensity rather than diminishing and the government is deeply apprehensive lest the situation will shortly get beyond control. Should Spanish property be attacked trouble will surely result.

FALL OF CABINET PREDICTED TODAY

Hendaye, France, Oct. 16.—The fall of the Spanish cabinet is predicted today by persons arriving here from Madrid who say that the opening session of the cortes yesterday clearly demonstrated that the Liberals will control the session. The expected Coalition of the heretofore warring parties has taken place and they now present an overwhelming majority which is likely to block the cabinet's resignation.

The opening session of the assembly, arrivals here say, was the stormiest since a series of years. Bitterly accompanied the initial ceremonies. Fists, stones and canes were used by the Liberals and Conservatives in the streets. The other side of the street, attaches and officials sought to keep the combatants apart, dozens of black eyes, tattered garments and bleeding noses bore evidence of the fierceness of the encounter. Many challenges to duels were hurled but although it is likely that a few will materialize, the excitement conditions under which the challenges were issued.

In the event of the cabinet's overthrow, the new cabinet will be the most likely man for the leadership. Madrid newspapers contain no mention of the revolutionary feeling which is sweeping over Europe as a result of Ferrer's execution.

KING ALFONSO ASSASSINATED, REPORT TODAY

(Special from United Press.)

Paris, Oct. 16.—A rumor, the source of which cannot be traced and which is now current in the Foreign Office of the Spanish Embassy, declares that King Alfonso of Spain was assassinated in Madrid today.

London, Oct. 16.—A report reached here today that Alfonso has been assassinated but it is not generally credited. For several years he was the reported assassin.

LEE WINS MANY DELEGATES ON SMALL POPULAR VOTE

In Seven Contested Districts Machine Tickets Get 889 and Morris Tickets 821 Votes, Making Lee Plurality 68

But Lee Gets 12 Delegates as Result of Contests, to 9 for Opposition and Will Have Certain Majority In Convention

Cooney Beats Booth in Ninth and Will Probably Be Nominated for Town Clerk —Muirhead Beaten By Stewart.

"The regular, well oiled, full-pocket Republican machine" carried four of the seven districts in which primary contests were waged, last night. The Morris Republicans carried three. The five districts in which no contests were waged number a few delegates for Senator Thomas Arnold, Jr., and a few pledged to Harbor Master Morris. But the general belief is that Arnold's name will not be mentioned in the convention, that Morris will be nominated and will receive 12 votes, and that Mayor Lee will have 24 votes, receiving the Arnold strength.

But the victory of the "full-pocket" machine was not as imposing as it might appear. Lee delegates received in the seven contested districts 889 votes. Morris delegates received 821. Lee plurality was 68 votes.

The Morris workers were handicapped by lack of means to work with, being confined in automobiles and vehicles of all kinds by the machine workers. In addition to the superior facilities which the machine workers enjoyed in this respect, there was at the last moment, a falling away on the part of several anti-Lee workers, which has not been explained. One of the delegates in the Tenth district, for instance, left the polling place at 8 o'clock and was not again seen. It was said that he was sending men in to vote the Lee ticket. In the sixth and eighth districts mysterious defections of Morris workers to the machine also took place.

Morris delegates carried his home district, the 11th by a vote almost two to one, of 144 to 73.

The loss of a score of the fight was in the ninth, where Neil M. Muirhead was defeated for the aldermanic nomination by Thomas Stewart by a vote of 186 to 126. The Morris ticket was defeated by a vote of 200 to 280 and this carried with it the defeat of James N. Booth for Ferdinand Lebrun as a corresponding victory for B. F. Cooney.

The popular vote in the seven contested districts, follow:

District	Morris	Lee
3rd	86	37
6th	78	84
10th	100	200
11th	144	73
12th	126	186

Lee's plurality 68. 821 889

Republican town and city convention will be composed of delegates as follows:

Electors on Lee's tickets in contest: Sixth District—Nicholas Tesny, Robert Simmons, George Murphy. Eighth District—Charles A. Nicholls, Ed. B. Greenleaf, John E. Pritchard. Ninth District—William H. Conley, J. Lorenzo D. Stone, John Piste. Tenth District—Albert J. Dimond, William Frame, Ferdinand Lebrun. Electors on Morris tickets, in contests: Third District—Sven Murborg, D. H. Sturges, Michael Kosma. Eleventh District—Eugene I. Meyer, Frank Braithwaite, Frank E. Elliott. Twelfth District—Charles H. Poland, William F. Foadell, Arthur Jelliffe.

ARNOLD LEAVING IT TO THE CONVENTION

Senator Thomas Arnold, Jr., was asked today what he thought of his chances of securing the nomination for mayor, judging by the complexion of the delegates elected last night. He replied, "I don't try to secure the pledges of delegates. I am leaving the matter to the convention itself and made no plans to have representation upon the delegate ticket."
